

Tactical Procurement Manager (m/f/d)

ID CB26071

The Company

Our customer is a leading technology and service provider for the global construction industry segment. It is a great place to add value and grow your career. Currently they have close to 30000 employees, which they are looking to expand.

Currently, we are looking for a 'Tactical Procurement Manager (m/f/d)' in Liechtenstein.

Responsibilities

- Your work starts by understanding what to buy. Sometimes the obvious answer is right, other times you will need to challenge the status quo. To convince stakeholders you mix sound logic with appealing storylines.
- You assess the supplier and market landscape to determine optimal sourcing tactics.
- Your portfolio will vary – some projects will be in thousands of francs; others in millions. The next step is turning these into realistic project plans and implementing them.
- Whether it's "old fashioned" tenders or e-auctions, you efficiently obtain highly competitive offers that deliver what stakeholders truly need.
- You treat unselected suppliers with respect, cognizant that in business we always meet more than once.
- Ongoing relationship management is your way to drive our suppliers to deliver top value for money over the entire contract lifetime.

Requirements

- University level education.
- Solid experience in planning and implementing procurement projects
- To succeed you need to be effective in finishing things end-to-end.
- You easily adapt between working in established structures and figuring out what to do when objectives are less clear.
- Making results concrete is important to you, be it wording contract paragraphs in German, assessing commercials in spreadsheets or eliciting decisions from senior management with slide decks.
- Hands-on project management and tough negotiation skills.
- Fluent in German and English

What we offer

- Excellent company culture which stands for an ambitious but caring working environment.
- Great opportunities to develop your career with a global player and international innovation driver.
- Competitive salary and a wide range of benefits, these may include day care for your kids or a free in-house gym.
